

BONNIE J. JACKSON, 79

MANASSA — Bonnie J. Jackson, 79, died August 7, 2003 at her home, here.

A well-known Manassa resident, she was born Nov. 22, 1923 in Denver to George and Verda Alice Rogers Baldauf. She married Warren J. Jackson in Redwood City, Calif., on March 8, 1943. He preceded her in death on March 18, 1999.

Bonnie was a member of the Manassa First Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, where she had served in various callings. She and her husband Warren served on a mission from 1991 until 1993 in Las Vegas, N.M.

She owned and operated Bonnie's Beauty Salon for many years in Manassa and enjoyed painting, stamping, candy making and baking for her family. She loved the ranch and livestock and fishing with her husband and grandchildren. She especially loved time spent with her family.

Survivors include her children, Paul (Kathy) Jackson of Sanford, Marsha (Monte) Miller and Karma (Kent) Marlatt both of Bayfield; her sister-in-law, Barbara Baldauf of Salt Lake City, Utah; 12 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents, her brother, Bob Baldauf, and her granddaughter, Amy Jackson.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Monday, Aug. 11, at the Manassa First Ward Chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, with burial following in the Manassa Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 6-8 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 10, and from 10 a.m. until service time Monday at the Rogers Family Mortuary in Manassa.

Contributions may be made to Hospice del Valle through Rogers Family Mortuary in Manassa, which is directing arrangements.

